When a woman suffers from depressing weaknesses, she then keenly realizes how helpless—how thoroughly worthless she is. Dr. Shoop has brought relief to thousands of such women. He reaches diseases peculiar to women in two direct, specific ways—a local treatment known by druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Night Cure, and a constitutional or internal prescription called Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is applied locally, and at night. It works while you sleep. It reduces inflammation, it stops discharges, it heals, it soothes, it comforts, it cures.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative (tablet or liquid form) is a constitutional nerve tissue tonic. It brings renewed strength, lasting ambition and vigor to weak, lifeless women.

These two remedies, singly, or used together, have an irresistible, positive helpful power. Try them a month and see. Sold by all dealers.

Dr. Weaver's Treatment.
Syrup purifies the blood, Cerate heals skin eruptions.

SAYRES—At the home of his son-in-law, Mr. W. H. Grider, at College Hill, Madison county, on Monday morning, Col. Samuel C. Sayres, aged 83 years.

Col. Sayres was a native of Mason county, but removed to Pennsylvania when a youth, and remained there several years, afterwards coming to this city to reside.

In young manhood Col. Sayres married Miss Sallie Theobald, daughter of the late Col. Thos. S. Theobald. By that union two daughters (Mrs. Jas. F. Meek and Mrs. W. H. Grider) were given to them, Mrs. Meek dying some three years since.

Col. Sayres held many responsible and difficult positions in this city, finally retiring from business activities when the Capital office was closed, at the expiration of the term of Col. E. Polk Johnson, as Public Printer.

Col Sayres was a cultivated and polished writer and gentleman of the old school. We have known him from our childhood. For a number of years Col. Sayres and his wife have been living with their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Grider, at College Hill, Ky.

Col. Sayres was a member of the Episcopal Church, and the remains were brought here on Tuesday and the funeral services conducted by Rev. R. L. McCready, from Ascension Church, that afternoon at 3 o'clock, the body afterwards laid to rest in the Theobald lot in our cemetery.

For many years, when a young man, Mr. Coleman was a deputy in Clerk of the Court of Appeals' office, when the late Mr. Jacob Swigert was the clerk. Later he moved to Louisville to reside and remained there until about three years ago, when he returned to this city, bought a lot and erected a cozy and comfortable home in which to pass his declining years.

While in Louisville Mr. Coleman married Miss Laura Perkins, and as a result of that union three daughters and one son were given to them (Mrs. Thos. P. Rogers and Miss Kate Coleman, of this city; Mrs. Joshua C. Shively and Mr. Ven A. Coleman, of Louisville), who together with his devoted wife, survive him.

In addition he left three sisters and two brothers (Mrs. W. W. Jett, of this county; Mrs. L. B. Kohnle, of Texas; Mrs. J. M. Jameson, and Dr. J. S. Coleman, of this city, and Mr. Landon S. Coleman, of Middletown), and a large circle of relatives to mourn his death.

Mr. Coleman was a devout member of the Christian Church for many years, and died in the triumphs of the Christian's faith.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. O. A. Vaught, of the Methodist Church, at 4 o'clock, on Tuesday, and the remains were laid away in the family lot in our cemetery.
